I: So Maria, what exactly is a May ball?

M: Well, it's a huge party at our college. They have it every summer after we finish our exams because we need to celebrate after all that stress. Everyone gets dressed up, and there's food and drink and entertainment. There are eight different stages and over 70 bands. This year one from my favourite DJs is playing. I really can't wait.

I: What are you going to wear?

M: I've just bought the dress I'm going to wear - It's dark blue and I feel really good in it. I'm going to wear it with high heels and some nice jewellery!

I: Is there anything else you need to do?

M: Get ready and sleep! I need to look my best. I'm going to hairdresser's tomorrow. And a beautician is doing our make-up. Apart from that, I'm not going to leave the house on Saturday. I'm going to get as much sleep as possible!

I: What time are you leaving?
